

NJ's do not call law has made a huge improvement to the quality of life at home. Prior to this law, we literally received over 20 calls a day, mostly ads, some even beginning early Sunday mornings. Now our home is more peaceful and our dinners go uninterrupted. Let's keep it that way...let NJ set limits that work and improve the quality of life.